V1

I read a page, out of an old familiar book.
It had the word "BIBLE" on the cover, and an ancient, wondrous look.
It seemed to tell me that MY righteousness, was rags.
That all the things I did for glory, could fit a shopping bag.

V2

I said that, "Surely, this could not be so!"
But the guilt of all my sin, would not let my spirit go.
Aware of the peril, of my souls poor fate...
I muttered out these words, I now reiterate.

Chorus 1

It's easy to believe a lie, it's harder to deny the truth.
I see now, you could live without me Lord.
Oh, but I - I couldn't live a day...without you.

V3

I could not go on, of 10 commandments...I kept none.
Because my angry thoughts, had ill intent...my words were like a gun.
Biblically, that qualifies and dirty, outright sin.
Logically, I try to justify, and I miss the mark again.

V4

Oh what a wretched man you say,
But every one of us need rescue, come the Judgement Day.
So I bend my stubborn knees, and bow my foolish pride.
And after a sinner's prayer, I finally start to realize.

Chorus 2

Easy to believe a lie, harder to deny the truth.
I'm thankful Jesus saved my life.

And I couldn't - I wouldn't be the same...without you.

I find it easy to believe you Lord...wouldn't be the same without you Jesus.

I find it easy to believe you Lord

What kind of man would I be, If I didn't have you to set me free.

I find it easy to believe....Easy to believe.
