V1

"It's O.K., Yeah, man it's cool."

"You don't want no one to treat you like a fool."

"Just take this gun, and they'll call you king..."

"When they're starring down the barrel of that thing."

Those were the words, inside his head.

Did they come from him or somewhere else instead.

Would he let pride, control his ways,

To wind up dead, or just in jail for all his days...Just say...

Chorus 1a

I don't want to, list-en to your,

Pretty little lies again...devil

Eve-ry-thing you, wanted me to do is,
just another word for sin.

For It is written...oh little boy...It is written.

V2

"It's O.K., To do this thing."

"It doesn't bother him, that you wear a ring."

"It's just for fun, no one gets hurt,"

"Just wipe the evidence of kisses, from his shirt."

Those were the words, trapped in her mind.

Would she start down a path, you can't reverse in time.

Would lone-li-ness, control her life,

To wind up sick and brokenhearted, filled with strife...So just say

Chorus 2a

I can't hear you, never going near to those pretty little lies once more.

(pause) You make it sound nice, just this side of paradise, but...
sin is crouching at the door.

Cause It is written...oh little girl...It is written.

Chorus 2b

I can't hear you, never going near to those pretty little lies once more.

(pause) You make it sound nice, just this side of paradise, but...
death is crouching at the door.

Chorus 1b

I don't want to, list-en to your,
Pretty little lies again...devil
Eve-ry-thing you, wanted me to do is,
just another word for sin.

For It is written...Oh, Yes...It is written.

(Ad Lib)

Thou shalt not steal
Thou shalt not kill
Adultery is a bitter pill
and jealousy will make you ill

I'll hide thy Word, up in my heart,
So that I would not make a start.

Flee temptation, everyday,
Resist those evil, wicked ways

- super conqueror.

In the Jesus name, in Jesus name

- super conqueror,

- super conqueror.

That's what you'll be... - a super conqueror.
